United Groups to Present Aid Ball Tomorrow Night

Proceeds Will Give Underprivileged Children of Albany Healthy Outings at Camp Willows in Santa Cruz

"Albany's organizations and citizens have agreed that all underprivileged children should have a summer outing," related Don Bruce, general chairman of the Grand Ball to be held tomorrow night at the Veterans Memorial Building under the auspices of the Men's Breakfast Club.

"They have shown this by the splendid support being given to make this worthy event an outstanding success," he continued, as he revealed how the Dads Clubs, veterans organizations, Parent-Teacher Associations and other groups have worked to sell tickets to the affair which will send needy children to the Albany Y. M. C. A. summer camp in the Santa Cruz Mountains.

Confirmation of these facts was received from Joe Villa, president of the Men's Club, as he expressed his appreciation of the cooperation which will result in health-giving vacations for children who need them.

TO RESTORE HEALTH

"Each child will be given as much time in the mountain camp as he or she needs," Villa said. "When they are restored to complete health, then only will they be brought back from 'The Willows'."

Selection of children to be benefited by these outings will be in the hands of the following:

Dr. J. Franklin West, superintendent of schools; Principals Charles A. Moore, Allen Keim and Kenneth Glines; Eugene Baker, principal-elect of Marin; and Miss Norma Shadall, public school nurse.

This group was chosen because of the members' first hand knowledge of the children in the schools, and the fact that they alone could determine the children most in need of help such as the Grand Ball can provide.

GALA AFFAIR

Under the direction of Ed Ryken and Harry I. Dygert, the popular orchestra of Charles H. Gring has been secured for tomorrow night. This group of performers is known throughout the East Bay for excellent music and is sure to provide the gala affair with several hours of enjoyable entertainment.

Tickets may be secured from members of any organization in this city or from any member of the committee.

Death Claims Mrs. Ferguson

Clad in her installation gown and with fellow members of Thousand Oaks Chapter No. 375, Order of Eastern Star, in charge of the services, last rites were held here Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Annie Laurie Ferguson, 75, who died in Oakland on Sunday.

Death ended a two-year illness and occurred at the home of her son, Norman Ferguson. Previously she had been living at the home of a second son, Richard Ferguson of 2002 Peralta Avenue.

Mrs. Ferguson was also the mother of the late Annie Laurie Howenstein and the grandmother of Richard, of Albany, and Norman Ferguson of Oakland. She was a native of Missouri.

Committal services were to be held at Mt. Vernon Cemetery, Atchison, Kansas, under the direction of the Eastern Star in that city.

The local rites, held at the James J. Ellis Company funeral parlors, included two of the woman's favorite songs presented by David Russell, well known Oakland singer.

Members of the Fire Department have received a letter from Sergeant and Mrs. Charles Hardie, who were in Detroit on June 5. The couple, now en route to New York, said that they were having a splendid time on their vacation.

Flier Places Charges After Sunday Crash

In court on charges of reckless driving filed by Major Livingston Irving of Dole flight fame, John Psthas of Port Chicago entered a plea of not guilty before Judge Louis Hardie last Wednesday night, was ordered to appear next week.

The charges were filed by Irving as the outcome of an accident at Buchanan Street and San Pablo Avenue last Sunday evening when the auto driven by Psthas collided with one driven by the ex-aviator, injuring his daughter, Madeline Irving, 15, and Mrs. C. H. Monroe, passengers in the car. The pair incurred slight injuries, refused hospitalization at the time.

Also in the Irving car were Mrs. Irving and Monroe. Riding with Psthas was M. Vasiliadis, also of Port Chicago, who suffered facial cuts. The Monroes live at 1056 Ordway Street. Major Irving and family live in Oakland.

SERVES 3 DAYS

Three days in the county jail was considered sufficient punishment by Judge Hardie for Rollo Hubbard, 1724 Alameda Avenue, Alameda, arrested here March 21 for speeding 40 miles an hour by Officer K. Nickerson. Hubbard had ignored a summons and was imprisoned as a result.

In dismissing the case, Judge Hardie warned him to "pay attention to citations." The court would be at "sixes and sevens," the jurist said, "if people did not heed them."

Mrs. Olga H. Barrett, 3760 Ardley Avenue, Oakland, paid a $2 fine for going through the signal at Solano and San Pablo Avenues, after claiming that she "didn't notice the light" and that "it came on while I was in the intersection."

To all of which Judge Hardie replied, "That's $21!"

LATE ARRIVAL

Appearing at the end of the session with an injured wrist and a story of how it happened, C. R. Jinks of 558 Williams Street, Oakland, was given the opportunity to pay off his $25 fine for speeding here on May 14, at the rate of $2.50 a week.

Jinks, in a previous appearance, had been sentenced to work 5 days for the city and disappeared last Monday from the job. According to his tale he had left the task to move his car which was parked overtime. While attempting to start the vehicle, he claimed, he cut his wrist on the license plate and had to go to Alameda County Hospital where several stitches were taken to close the wound.

The judge examined the injury and, informing him that a warrant had already been issued, agreed to accept the weekly payment for the City.

Sportsmen Will Meet Next Week

Another interesting session of the San Pablo Avenue Sportsmen's Club will be held next Friday evening in the Macca-bes Hall, according to J. McAuillie, secretary.

An outstanding speaker on some sporting topic will be on hand, he said. Other features will be announced next week. All members and their friends are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Cy Turner and sons, Buddy and Delmar, are now in San Bernardino at the home of Mrs. Turner's mother, Mrs. R. DeVarney. The family expects to return in about a week.

Rev. H. Brooke Attends Meeting Of M. E. Churches

Albany is represented at the annual Northern California Conference of Methodist Episcopal Churches, now being held in Stockton at the College of the Pacific, by Rev. Herbert Brooke, pastor of the Community M. E. Church. He is accompanied by Dr. Harry R. Calkins of this city.

This annual meeting which began Tuesday and ends Sunday is being attended by more than 500 representatives of churches in this section and Nevada. The group is about equally divided into pastors and lay members and will discuss the activities of their churches during the past year.

Rev. Bishop James C. Baker of San Francisco, head of the Methodist Episcopal Churches of this district, is in charge of the conference.

Local Board Hears Safety Talks Friday

"Holding their first meeting, members of the board of directors of the Albany Traffic Safety Council gathered last Friday night at Scheik's to listen to an address by Frank Cox, former head of the similar group in Berkeley, and now a member of the speakers' bureau of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce.

Presenting specific instances where cities throughout the United States had definitely reduced their accident and death rates, Cox offered a number of suggestions for Albany to adopt along such lines.

The three most dangerous intersections in Albany, it was pointed out by Officer Frank Davis of the local department, are Solano and San Pablo, Marin and Santa Fe, and Pomona and Portland Avenues.

Asked about the commonest violation, Officer Davis declared that this consisted of the driver who, when within 45 feet of a traffic signal, speeds up his car in an attempt to get across. Because of the five-second caution light this is an unnecessary action, he explained, also pointing out the result of having an officer stationed at an intersection during the day to arrest these violators. In his own case, stationed at Solano and San Pablo Avenues, the number of persons arrested has steadily decreased during the past few months.

NAME COMMITTEES

The local group also named several committees from its membership, as follows:

Accident study and engineering and highway safety—City Engineer H. I. Dygert, chairman; Police Chief John Glavinovich, Fire Chief Carl Ahlgren and Allen Keim, new superintendent of schools.

Committee on contests and State and local coordination—Thomas L. Farnsworth, chairman; Mrs. Beatrice Raymond, C. E. Morris, Mrs. Marie Ruiz and J. C. Cappelman.

Committee on enforcement and traffic school—Councilman Vincent Hana-han, chairman; Judge Louis Hardie, City Attorney C. N. Lavers, Dr. Jane Paxson and Officer Frank Davis.

Committee on membership, organization and ways and means—Mrs. Beatrice Raymond, chairman; A. F. Lemes, Walter Teasdale and Carl Nieper.

Committee on programs, publicity and speakers' bureau—J. C. Green, chairman; John MacCann, A. F. Lemes and Frank Graeber.

Committee on school education—Allen Keim, chairman; Charles A. Moore, Kenneth Glines, George Batchelder and Mrs. F. Anthony.

Elected to the board of directors at this meeting were Officer Frank Davis, C. E. Morris, secretary of the Y. M. C. A.; and Cecil N. Lavers, city attorney. This brings the number of directors to 25.

O'Leary Named

Jack O'Leary, working foreman of the Street Department, was named by the City Council at its meeting Monday night as assistant superintendent of streets. This will give him full authority to act during the future vacation of Superintendent Harry I. Dygert.

A two-week vacation in British Columbia is being enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Dukes of Los Angeles.

Called by Death

Death last Friday evening ended the active career of Mrs. Marie L. Jafeman of this city. Although she had reached the age of 83, Mrs. Jafeman took a keen interest in the affairs of the Chat and Stitch Club and many other groups.

Mrs. Jafeman Dies Friday

After a residence in California of 62 years, the last 12 of which were spent here in Albany, death came to Mrs. Marie L. Jafeman of 627 Adams Street late Friday evening. The deceased was 83 years of age at the time of her passing, having celebrated a birthday on May 11. She was a native of Poe, France.

Ever active, Mrs. Jafeman had made a trip to Stockton only the day before her death, traveling in company with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Peterson of this city. She was a member of the Chat and Stitch Club and attended its many gatherings regularly.

Many of her friends and relatives attended the final services on Tuesday afternoon in the flower-banked chapel of the James J. Ellis Company. The rites were in charge of Rev. Herbert Brooke of the Albany Community M. E. Church. Cremation followed at the Berkeley Crematory.

Mrs. Jafeman was the widow of the late Francis Jafeman, the mother of Mrs. Dorothy Peterson and the late Edward Jafeman; grandmother of Miss Dorothy Peterson, Edward Jafeman, Jr., and Mrs. Vivienne Marren; great grandmother of Tommy and Sheila Marren.

War Dangers Stressed in Rotary Talk

"While the United States is at peace with the world and is the most prosperous nation on earth, we face a serious condition which will sooner or later touch our domain. While European nations prepare for war, we idly wait for these war clouds to drift by without disturbing our peace."

So heard the members and guests of the Albany Rotary Club as they listened to an address Monday by Mrs. Ruth Mathebat, State department president of the American Legion Auxiliary. She stressed the fact that the American Legion did not, however, desire war but did feel that the country should be prepared for such an eventuality.

The interesting program included two piano solos by Roberta Moore, daughter of J. R. Moore, chairman of the day. The meeting was presided over by Don Bruce, president.

Among the visitors present were Henry Greenrose, Marvin Shen, Clint Evans, Jack Hezlett, R. W. Wright, J. D. Bertheuer, B. Gage, G. Hoyt, H. H. Ellis, Freenrose and W. G. Doane of Berkeley; R. R. Rein and H. Williams of Oakland; Al Mathebat, C. Burnside and Merritt Cowell of Alameda; and Dick Roberts of Los Angeles.

Hey Kids, It's Albany Jubilee Day Tuesday!

By obtaining tickets from merchant-members of the Albany Chamber of Commerce, local children can have the time of their young lives next Tuesday at Neptune Beach in Alameda.

This is the promise of Mrs. Beatrice Raymond, president of the group, who has revealed that free tickets for the "Albany Jubilee" at that time are now available at the stores and offices of the chamber's members.

Through arrangements with the management of the popular resort the entire place will be turned over to parents and their children from Albany, she declared.

In addition to the tickets given out locally which are good for admissions and reduced rates on all concessions including the swimming tank, other low rates will be in effect next Tuesday for Albanyites.

C. E. Morris, secretary of the local "Y," will present a program of entertainment in the afternoon and guarantees that his performers will please everyone.

With the entire park open to the people of Albany, it is necessary to add that a wonderful outing is in store?

Merchants to Play Richmond Game Sunday

Albany Merchants will play their first out-of-town game next Sunday afternoon, meeting the Richmond Merchants, it is announced by Manager Jake Nora.

This move was occasioned by a play-off which has been called by the heads of the league, Nora advised. Each team was given its choice of a site for the contest, a coin was tossed and the locals lost, so the tilt is to be held in the confines of Richmond.

Albany won its game 6-4 last Sunday behind the flawless pitching of Ed Curcio, 17-year-old star from University High in Oakland, who allowed but eight hits and struck out eight men during the affair with the Crescent Colored Stars.

Two hits were earned by Frank Peacock, leftfielder. Pitcher Curcio also slammed out two. Tony Cola walked up to the plate with the bases full, batted on a two-bagger and was hailed by the fans.

Stan Connors, at short, also played a fine game, making one stop for a fast double play which drew approval from the stands. LeBlanc hit three and Lane, one, for the losers.

Bobby Coltrin, scout for the New York Yankees, was on hand to witness the performance of Curcio.

Legion Post Rewards Boys

In keeping with the American Legion program of rewarding honor students of the Albany junior and senior high schools, Albany Post made two awards yesterday at the commencement exercises.

A. L. Ford, chairman of the Post's Americanization committee, presented the citizenship cup to Bruce Toggin for the highest citizenship in the junior high school graduating class rites, yesterday afternoon. This award is a perpetual one given each term. The name of the winner is engraved upon it and the trophy is kept in the award case at the high school.

James Statena of the high school was presented the American Legion medal for being the outstanding student in his graduating class in the exercises last evening. Commander Leon Fay of Post made the award.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Chapman and daughter were expected to return this week-end to their home at 1518 Sonoma Avenue after a two-week vacation.

Council Names Hearing Date On Fireworks

Applications for permits to sell fireworks in this city will be considered by the City Council on Monday night, June 21, that group announces this week.

By setting a definite time when all applications will be handled, the council hopes to eliminate the yearly last-minute rush for licenses to handle whatever fireworks are allowed. This has not permitted sufficient time to investigate the applications in the past, it was stated.

Applicants are advised to have necessary information on file at the City Hall, 1045 Solano Avenue, on or before that date, as no permits can be issued those who do not comply with this request.

Big Year Is Credited to Marin Dads

Back of the record now held by the Marin Dads Club of being the largest and most active group of its kind in the state is a year of accomplishment, made possible only by hard work and the cooperation of its 200 members, a survey of the report made by A. K. P. tengill, retiring secretary, reveals.

The following high spots reveal a part of the success which has greeted the presentations of the group. The Halloween party, held on October 31, 1936, was witnessed by 2000 persons.

A joint social with the P. T. A., on November 20, was attended by 250.

The affair for dads and daughters, on January 15, was seen by 500 guests. On February 12, more than 400 persons attended the whist party given for the benefit of the Cub Pack and Scout Troop of the school.

"Dads and Sons Night" brought 600 to Marin on March 10, while the annual "Dads and Wives Night" program was enjoyed by 450.

AIDS DADS

In addition to promoting and staging these affairs, the club membership has continually striven to see that every dad shall have a closer understanding of parenthood, child life, school and community problems and to stimulate his interest in affairs as they affect his child.

A Cub Pack with a membership of 38, and Scout Troop No. 42 with 25 active members, are but two more examples of the club's interest in the youth of the district.

As though this were not enough to keep the group busy, an active participation in the State Council of Dads Clubs has also been shown. Truly, the Marin Dads have lived up to their motto, "Never the first failure."

Cornell P.T.A. Holds Final Spring Meet

Holding its last meeting of the spring term, Cornell Parent Teacher Association met last Thursday afternoon in the school auditorium.

The theme of the meeting was "The Development of Character Through Recreational Facilities," featured a talk on the recreational activities which the Recreational Department will offer during the summer, given by Ed Howell, supervisor.

The splendid vacation advantages of the Y. M. C. A. summer camp were told by C. E. Morris, director of the facility which opens this month in the Santa Cruz Mountains.

Words of greeting and farewell were expressed by Dr. John Franklin West, retiring superintendent of schools, as he voiced his pleasure at the cooperation he had received during his nine years in the position and praised the association for its program of service to childhood.

AID CHILDREN

The group voted to defray the expenses of the examinations held last Monday at Cornell for children registering for the fall session. The examinations are in line with the health project of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers and afford parents a chance to remedy any defects during the summer months, it was declared.

Leading Educators Join in Tribute to Retiring School Head

Not for many a moon has the staid auditorium of the Berkeley Women's City Club witnessed, it is said, a gathering of such genuine goodwillship as the through which met there last Sunday morning to honor Dr. John Franklin West, retiring superintendent of schools.

Under the direction of the Women's Breakfast Club of this city, a crowd of nearly 200 persons, including noted educators and dignitaries from the East Bay as well as Albany, gathered to pay tribute to the man credited with building up the local schools to their present high standard.

The meeting was opened by Dr. Jane Paxson, president of the women's club, and turned over to Mrs. Beatrice Raymond who served as master of ceremonies of the occasion.

PRAISE WIVES

With tongue in cheek, Mrs. Raymond then proceeded to introduce the wives of distinguished guests, relegating the husbands to a lesser position.

In the same vein Mrs. West was introduced by Mrs. Don Bruce, and given full credit for the splendid work of her husband. Replying in kind, Mrs. West advised Mrs. Charles Moore, Mrs. Allen Keim and Mrs. Kenneth Glines, wives of the school principals, to "take a strong hand in your husband's work." In closing she became serious and told of her appreciation for the many friendships she had made.

The women's organization also presented her with a beautifully fitted traveling case in token of the friendship and esteem of the membership.

TRIBUTE FROM P. T. A.

Full praise was duly accorded Dr. West, however, as representatives of Albany Parent Teacher Associations arose in turn and lauded his active furthering of the schools' interests during his nine-year term.

Mrs. Marie Ruiz, president of Albany High P. T. A., summed up her group's appreciation of his work by saying: "People used to move away from Albany because of the schools, now they come here on account of them."

"No school appreciates Dr. West more than we do," told Mrs. E. L. Stine, Marin P. T. A. head. We owe him a debt of lasting gratitude and we'll miss him. Dr. West will always have a loving place in our hearts."

"While we always consider fathers as parents, too," related Mrs. C. B. Lyon, president of the Cornell group, "There was only one man that we could always depend on to be present at our meetings. This was Dr. West, always sincere in his interest in our attempts to increase cooperation between parents and school authorities. He is a real friend of the parents and children of Albany and our good wishes go with him."

Full credit for the success of the affair is due Mrs. Minnie Lou Eakin, general chairman, whose untiring efforts and hard work brought the testimonial to a happy conclusion.

Among the distinguished out-of-town guests were Hollis R. Thompson, city manager of Berkeley, and Mrs. Thompson; Dr. Virgil Dickson, school superintendent of Berkeley, and Mrs. Dickson; W. T. Helms, Richmond school superintendent, and Mrs. Helms; and Dr. David Martin, Alameda County superintendent of schools, and Mrs. Martin.

Given by Mrs. Charles B. Lyon, president of the unit, who recently returned from Pasadena where she was a delegate to the 38th annual convention of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Several musical selections were provided by the school orchestra under the direction of Malcolm Curry. This group has received its instruction from Armin Wegner, in charge of music in the City's schools.

The meeting ended with a social hour in the cafeteria where refreshments were served by the tea hostesses, Mrs. W. A. North and Mrs. James Cambis.

SOCIETY NEWS

District Meeting Honors Cornell P.T.A.

The Cornell Parent Teacher Association was honored Monday at the meeting of the 16th district of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers, it was revealed, an award of merit for the excellent of its programs during the past year having been made by the group. Mrs. Glen Chappell was program chairman during this period which ended on April 1.

Representing Cornell at the meeting were Mrs. Charles B. Lyon, president, and Mrs. H. Roney.

Mrs. Peacock Leaves On Two-Month Vacation

No looking forward to a two-months vacation is Mrs. William Peacock, of 832 Cornell Avenue, who leaves tomorrow night for Grafton, North Dakota, to visit her brother.

While away Mrs. Peacock plans also to visit a nephew in Manitoba, Canada, a member of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police. The local woman disclosed that she has not seen either of these relatives for a good many years.

Stork Shower for Sister of Mrs. Wagner

The home of Mrs. A. F. Wagner, 2093 Bonar Street, Berkeley, was the setting for the stork shower last Thursday evening honoring her sister, Mrs. E. C. Jorgensen of Oakland. Also aiding at the affair were Mrs. M. F. Ingram and Mrs. Old.

Twelve guests were present, bringing many lovely gifts to the honoree. Refreshments were served at a table gaily decorated with a stork-covered tablecloth, the centerpiece consisting of a bassinet of pink and blue which was filled with gifts. Dutch whist was enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. Wagner is past commander of Albany Hive of the Maccabees.

Auxiliary Plans Telephone Whist

Members of the Auxiliary to Leland Bergen Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will hold a telephone whist this evening at 8:30 o'clock. One party will meet at 1328 Marin Avenue, the other at 1543 Buena Avenue, Berkeley.

Many splendid awards have been secured, it is said, and a good time is assured all who attend.

Mrs. Kane Honored At Surprise Party

Mrs. Marjorie Kane of 921 Ramona Avenue was the recipient of a delightful surprise party Monday as a number of her friends gathered at her home. All presented lovely handkerchiefs to the astonished honoree.

To Greet Young Friends at Party

Sixteen young friends of Edna Mae Henchey will gather tomorrow afternoon at a colorful birthday party to offer their greetings. The affair will be held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Varni of 848 Madison Street.

Marking the tenth birthday of the young lady, the party will feature games for the young guests and a number of surprises, it is said.

Her daughter, Mrs. S. H. Kirkland of Berkeley, has just returned from the East, Mrs. H. Kelling of the Kelling Realty Company, 1535 Solano Avenue, discloses. While away Mrs. Kirkland visited New York, Philadelphia and Washington; D. C., in the latter city visiting her sister, Vesta Kelling-Cummings. The two sisters also attended the President's Ball, relates the local woman.

Among the Albany children taking part in the Bennett Sisters recital last week at the International House were Betty Jane Mattos and Jack Timmons.

NEWS OF LELAND BERGESEN AUXILIARY

"Past Presidents' Night" was featured at the meeting Tuesday night of Leland Bergesen Auxiliary V.F.W. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Olive Blair, president.

Guests of honor included Mrs. Theresa Ham, first president; Mrs. Nora Healey, second president; and Mrs. Esther Wells, junior past president. The latter was presented with a beautiful quilt from the members of the Auxiliary.

Sister Olga Thomas, captain of the Poppy drive, announced that the event was a huge success. Having sold 1259 Poppies, Mrs. Loma McSorley will be awarded a silver trophy given by Comrade Herbert Ham, Post adjutant, at the annual Poppy dinner to be held Tuesday, June 15, at 6:30 p. m. in the Veterans Memorial Building. Members of the Post have been invited as guests.

Visiting guests of this meeting were Mrs. Hazel Hyatt of Kentfield, Mrs. Bonnie Trimble, president of Tamalpais Auxiliary, San Rafael, and Mrs. Alice Dukes also of San Rafael.

ALBANY POST
No. 292

The committee in charge of the 10th anniversary of the institution of Albany Post, under the leadership of Walker Lyon, is making plans to have one of the most outstanding nights of entertainment the Post has ever staged for its members. The 10th anniversary celebration will be held June 18 in the Memorial Building. The committee's tentative plans call for a program of boxing and wrestling. The distinguished guest and speaker for the evening will be State Commander Thomas Riordan.

The plans of the committee call for the contacting of all veterans who signed the charter roll of Albany Post 10 years ago. In staging this celebration the original charter and the charter roll of the Post membership was found. It had been lost since the time the Post moved into the Memorial Building.

At the last meeting of the Post E. R. Birks, chairman of the committee to cooperate with the other civic and fraternal organizations of Albany who are sponsoring a ball in the Memorial Building June 12 to raise money to send needy children of Albany to summer camp, reported that the 50 tickets allotted to Albany Post had been disposed of and that the ball promises to be one of the outstanding social events of the season.

At the suggestion of Howard Serles, of the Boy Scout committee, Albany Post will purchase a table for the new mess hall at the Berkeley Boy Scout Camp at Wolfboro. The table will have a plaque inserted bearing the name of Albany Post.

Under the sponsorship of Albany Post James Sartain, athletic chairman, has 38 boys in three teams playing baseball in the Rem league this season.

Pioneer Barber Remodels Avenue Establishment

Completion of the modernization of his barber shop at 849 San Pablo Avenue was announced this week by Frank Butera, for the past 12 years one of Albany's most progressive businessmen.

The popular place of business has been completely re-painted and re-decorated and now boasts one of the most attractive interiors in the City, his patrons declare.

Many new items have been added for the convenience of his old-time patrons and the many new friends who are just getting acquainted with the service and quality of work which this pioneer establishment has to offer.

In keeping with this program Teddy's Beauty Shop, located in the rear of the building, has also enlarged and re-arranged its facilities for the increased convenience of local women, Miss Teddy Heryford announces.

CORNELL SCHOOL NEWS
By Mary Carlevaro and Anna Jean Byers

The mothers of Mrs. E. Saunders' pupils attended a program and tea given in the class room and cafeteria on Wednesday, June 2.

INDIAN BOOK
The low third has just completed an Indian book. There are 12 pages of lovely illustrations colored by the children. Each child has his own book and is very anxious to take it home to show to his parents.

HIGH SECOND NEWS
The high second class reads a play each week. The play for last week was the "Sleeping Beauty." The characters are:
King—Allen Kane.
Queen—Carolyn Ekeall.
Princess—Arden Samuels.
Prince—Joe Villa.

Kind Fairy—Luella Noe.
Fairies—Geraldine Calhoun, Carol Osborne, Lila Lee, Nancy Wiles, Patty Anne Myers, Geraldine Hansen, Jacqueline Smythe, Shirley Neidenbach, Betty Nerz, Jacqueline Nail, Ardath Farnsworth, Sylvia Shipman.

These playlets are to help the children with their reading and to teach attentiveness when something is going on.

SURPRISE PARTY
Cornell teachers gathered last week at the home of Miss Dorothy Nicholas. The affair was in the nature of a surprise party and a house wraming. Miss Nicholas recently bought a new house on Key Route Boulevard. The teachers presented her with a beautiful floor lamp.

RUSSIANS TO MEET ON MAT THIS EVENING

Two Russians, one clever and the other tabbed as the meanest in the wrestling game, will headline the two hour, three fall main event at the Oakland auditorium tonight.

Count George Zarynoff is the clever mat artist. He has proven outstanding in his work for the past six weeks on the local mat. His opponent, Ivan Managoff, is the rough and tumble type of grappler.

If Zarynoff expects to win this bout he'll have to watch every second of the way. No one knows when he's going to strike. On the other hand if the Count can display the same tactics as in his recent bout with the "Red" Phantom, he'll more than give Managoff trouble and worry.

A preliminary bout, featuring "Tiny" Roebuck, giant Indian, and two opponents should prove a humdinger. It may be a tough night for Roebuck, but he doesn't mind.

Jack Gacek of Chicago and Jack Woods of Australia are signed to tackle the Indian, but not at the same time. Bacek is the first on the list for a 15-minute, one fall contest with Woods following close behind. Roebuck weighs close to 300 pounds.

Abe Yurist of Portland and the Phantom, clash in the 30-minute, one fall semi-final bout. Yurist is hailed as a comer in the grunt and groan game. He has proven a great favorite in the northwest. The Phantom is still undefeated.

Billy Hansen, former champion on the state, and Jimmy Parker of Chicago, tangle for 30 minutes, one fall. Parker is a newcomer to our Pacific shores and boasts of an excellent record. Hansen is from Los Angeles and is fast and clever.

Ernie Peterson of Detroit and Kiman Kudo of Japan open the show in a 30-minute, one fall bout.

Wednesday Rites For J. W. Ellis

Services were held here Wednesday afternoon for John W. Ellis, 75, who died Sunday night in Fairfield. Mr. Ellis, father of James J. APPEARING HERE

Eon Parr, noted psychic, who is appearing this week at the Albany Theatre, will hold a matinee for the women of this district this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, it is announced by Neil Crowley, manager of the local amusement house.

At this time Miss Parr will answer all questions put to her by the exclusively feminine audience, Crowley said. During her appearance in the past week hundreds of queries have been submitted by the patrons, he said.

The matinee will also feature "Sea Devils," with Victor McLaglen, Preston Foster and Ida Lupino. The second film now showing is "The Last of Mrs. Cheyney," starring William Powell, Joan Crawford and Robert Montgomery.

Sunday and Monday the Albany will offer Charlie Ruggles and Alice Brady in "Mind Your Own Business" and Claire Trevor and Michael Whalen in "Career Woman."

Rites Held for F. W. Seesholtz

Members of Albany Grove No. 257, United Ancient Order of Druids, were in charge of the funeral services Wednesday afternoon in Berkeley for Fred W. Seesholtz, for 17 years a member of the local organization.

Death came to Mr. Seesholtz Monday morning at his home, 1737 Allston Way, Berkeley. He was the husband of the late Mrs. Myrtle F. Seesholtz and a native of Lykens, Pa. He is survived by a son and daughter, Donald Edmund and Mary Jane Seesholtz and was a brother-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Tharp.

Interment was at Sunset View Cemetery.

California College of Business Offers Graduates Many Advantages

This is the time of year when a large number of youths are being graduated from high school and college. They are the hope of our community. They face the problem of choosing and or making a wise decision as to where they shall secure their specialized training. This is the day of specialists in business as well as in science or the other professions.

The youths who contemplate a business career should consider seriously the advantages afforded by the California College of Business, 2132 Allston Way, Berkeley. This business training institution not only has a very strong faculty of specialists in their field but offer most up-to-date courses in Business Administration, Secretarial and General Business training.

Dean C. W. Wise, the director of this modern school, is a forward-looking educator of proven leadership. He understands the problems of youth and has had over 25 years' of experience in dealing with young people in the field of education and vocational counseling.

California College of Business limits the number of students received at any one time in order that there may be a larger degree of personal contact between the student and his teachers. This assures the most competent instruction and the most rapid individual progress in mastering the subjects. The graduates of this outstanding school are reflecting a high degree of credit upon the college and its faculty.

Their record in assisting graduates in securing positions is a most enviable one. Up to the present time no graduate has had to wait for a position.

Residents of Albany and vicinity who are planning a business career should visit California College of Business, so conveniently located, and learn in detail what is being done for our community in qualifying young people for positions as business executives, accountants, secretaries, and general office workers.

Jr. Auxiliary Is Host to Units Last Saturday

Eighty-eight young members from the seven units in this district of the Junior Auxiliary American Legion gathered last Saturday at Memorial Park to enjoy a picnic luncheon and outing, later taking part in a joint session in the Veterans Memorial Building.

With members of Albany unit acting as hostesses for the occasion, an interesting two-hour meeting was held.

Nineteen new members were initiated by the drill team from Alameda. A glee club from the San Leandro unit also presented several numbers.

Guest of honor was Mrs. Ruth Mathemat, State president of the American Legion Auxiliary, who offered a stirring address on the value of membership in the organization to her young listeners.

Other guests included Mrs. Lydia Silvia, district president; Mrs. A. Cook of Albany, district chairman of the Junior Auxiliary; and Mrs. Josephine Foley, president of Albany Auxiliary.

Archaeologists now suggest that when the Bible says the Israelites wandered 40 years in the wilderness, 40 is a round number, indicating roughly a generation or somewhere between 20 and 40 years.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Lennox and daughter, Betty, of 715 Masonic Avenue are expected to return this weekend from Portland, Ore., where they traveled on a vacation trip.

Jean Esterley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Esterley, 802 Madison Street, is recovering from an attack of pneumonia, her parents have reported.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Daniels of 626 Adams Street will make their home in Los Angeles in the near future.
